

Child HeLP

Cincinnati Child Health-Law Partnership

Is something getting in the way of your child's health?

If the answer is “yes”,
ask about Child HeLP.

Child HeLP can assist you with legal problems affecting your family's health.

Housing

Problems Affect Your Child's Health

Do you need help with:

- Eviction
- Poor housing conditions
- Foreclosure

A child needs to live in safe and decent housing.

Benefits

Problems Affect Your Child's Health

Do you need help with:

- Medicaid
- Food stamps
- Ohio Works First (OWF)
- Child care
- Social Security/SSI
- Unemployment
- Veteran's benefits

Families need enough resources to meet the needs of their children.

Ask your primary care doctor or social worker about Child HeLP.
Or call (513) 636-7722 and select the option for the Child HeLP program.
Hablamos español.

School

Problems Affect Your Child's Health

Do you need help with:

- School Discipline
- Special Education Services
- Enrollment

A child who attends school and receives needed services and supports is more likely to learn.

Family

Problems Affect Your Child's Health

Do you need help with:

- Custody
- Emotional or physical abuse
- Family violence

A stable and safe home promotes a child's positive behaviors, emotional development and social skills.

Child HeLP is a medical-legal partnership between Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center and the Legal Aid Society of Greater Cincinnati. It is a free service that promotes children's health and well-being by resolving legal problems.

Child HeLP is supported by Cincinnati Children's, the Legal Aid Society and the following:

The AK Steel Foundation
William P. Anderson Foundation
The Camden Foundation
Chemed Foundation
The Thomas J. Emery Memorial
General Electric Evendale Employees'
Community Service Fund
The Andrew Jergens Foundation
Junior Co-Operative Society
Manuel D. & Rhoda Mayerson Foundation
The Procter & Gamble Fund
Renaissance Charitable Foundation
The Helen Steiner Rice Fund
The John A Schroth Family Charitable Trust
Jack J. Smith, Jr. Charitable Trust
United Way of Greater Cincinnati
And numerous individual donors